EXPERIENCE

She recently acted for respondents in Operation Satchel and Operation Directed, the two largest public law cases heard to date in the UK Family courts. Particular areas of interest include:

- Child death
- Serious physical injury
- Allegations of physical, emotional and sexual abuse
- Fabricated/Induced Illness (FII)
- Toxicology and poisoning
- Judicial review
- Human rights issues
- Disclosure and Public Interest Immunity (PII) issues relating to children
- LGBT and Modern Families parenting issues

Elizabeth is an expert authority in the development of the law relating to surrogacy; she was leading counsel in the recent ground-breaking cases of Re X (A Child) (Surrogacy: Time Limit) [2014] EWHC 3135 (Fam) and Re Z (No 2) (a child) [2016] EWHC 1191 (fam) (which led to the Government's revision of the law prohibiting single people from applying for parental orders).

Elizabeth is also regularly instructed in cases following breakdown of surrogacy arrangements or same-sex parenting arrangements.

Elizabeth is the head of the Chambers Childcare Group and a member of Chambers Management Committee.

In 2017 Elizabeth was shortlisted for 'Family Silk of the Year' at the Jordans Family Law Awards, in 2018 she was the 'Regional/Scottish Silk of the Year' at the Legal 500 UK Awards and in 2019 she was shortlisted again for the same award.

Elizabeth is an appointed Trustee of the Donor Conception Network.

Elizabeth is Direct Access trained and is therefore happy and able to accept instructions from prospective clients directly.

TESTIMONIALS

"Elizabeth's technical knowledge is brilliant, and she is also excellent and grounded in her relationships with the client." "Elizabeth has an almost encyclopaedic knowledge of the law. It's astounding and impressive and she's a pleasure to watch in action." Chambers & Partners 2022

"She is clever creative and very hard working. Her written work reflects this, and her advocacy is thorough and persuasive. Many expect her to be on the high court bench soon. I agree with them." Legal 500 2022
